- treat all young people with dignity and respect
- watch your language, tone of voice and body language
- in one-to-one situations, keep the door ajar and ensure other adults are around
- don't invade a child's privacy, especially when toileting or washing
- don't play rough or provocative games
- don't be sexually suggestive about or to a child, even in fun
- don't touch a child inappropriately or obtrusively
- don't scapegoat, ridicule or reject a child
- don't show favouritism
- don't involve children in excessive attention seeking
- don't give lifts to children or young people on their own. If unavoidable, ask them to sit in the back of the car.
- don't share sleeping accommodation with young people
- don't invite a young person to your home alone: invite a group and ideally make sure another adult is present
- don't permit abusive peer activities e.g. bullying, ridiculing, initiation ceremonies
- don't allow unknown adults access to children in your care. Visitors should be accompanied by a known person
- use the internet sensibly and responsibly
